

Meeting women-owned business goals just got easier, in every language

Unique partnership between WEConnect International and In Every Language can help your business meet its women-owned supplier goals

In Every Language is donating 3% of translation services purchased by member organizations to WEConnect International to help women-owned suppliers obtain certification.

The benefits to your organization:

- A nationally recognized, trusted solution for your business translation needs
- A percentage of every translation project helps WEConnect expand and certify your international women-owned suppliers
- Dedicated liaison and ongoing language support
- Integration with existing suppliers and Tier 2 supplier participation

Getting started is easy:

- Share this special supplier diversity initiative with buyers of translation services across your organization and contact In Every Language to get started
- In Every Language is already registered with your organization's purchasing department and can help you identify translation buyers within your company

Some see translation as an expense. In Every Language's clients understand it's a profit-driver.

- In Every Language is your trusted source for high-quality, world-class translation, interpretation and localization solutions
- Over 170 languages offered
- In Every Language is a WBENC Certified WBE, Certified DBE and SBA Classified Small Business
